

Come and see us before the magic begins

19th - 20th December 2026

Before the festive season sweeps us away, we're throwing open our doors to our favourite people, our lovely local community. Join us for our locals' weekend on the 19th and 20th December and enjoy The Headland at its Christmas best.

Festive Weekend

What's on

Christmas carols and sea shanties with the Newquay Rowing Club Saturday 19th	The Ballroom	From 1.30pm
Scenic Route Sunday 20th	The Ballroom	From 12.30pm

Book into RenMor for a festive afternoon tea or settle into your spot in The Ballroom, where festive cakes and treats will be available throughout the day. And we couldn't possibly confirm or deny whether Father Christmas might make an appearance, but little ones may want to keep their eyes open.

Visiting The Headland over the festive period

23rd December 2026 - 1st January 2027

From the 23rd and 24th December, we have limited availability for non-resident and self-catering cottage guests, so please book ahead to avoid disappointment. The Headland will be exclusively for festive guests on Christmas Day and Boxing Day, reopening to non-residents and self-catering cottage guests on the 27th, again with bookings required. We'll also have limited availability on New Year's Eve.
